A different flair in birthday parties was noteworthy in the celebration held in honor of Anne Mulqueen, 437 Via La Selva, on the occasion of her eighth birthday last Sept. 9. Under the supervision of Mrs. Mulqueen, Anne and her guests enjoyed a theater party with a treat afterwards in the shape of queen, celebrated her birthday a few weeks preceding, on the occasion of her ninth birthday. The flair for something different was evidenced again; the party took the shape of a picnic at El Retiro park with 12 of her little friends attending. As a special touch, her two grand parents from Connecticut were visiting at the time and attended her party.

NEW NEIGHBOR DEPT: Add to your new neighbor list the Marvin Ross' and their two sons, Stuart and Ronald, who daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt have moved into their new home at 452 Calle de Castellana.

Mr. Ross is affiliated with one of the local newspapers in the beach area.

Lt. John Goethefer, 115 Calle de Andaluca, has been away on a South American Navy cruise for four weeks aboard his ship, the U. S. S. Kennebec. His latest letter to wife Gloria and two children, Judy and Johnny, says that it will be several weeks yet before his return. While he is away, Mrs. Goethefer is entertaining her close friend, Betty Gable, of Toronto, Canada, who will visit for an indefinite time.

It just seems as though Riviera is a lot like Topsy; it's just growin' and growin'. In addition to all the new families moving in, older residents are adding to the total census figure. Mrs. Frederick Seaholm, 221 Calle de Madrid, is expecting to add two to the population next November 15 or thereabouts. Her doctor has told her to expect twins about that time to join sister Sharon, 9, and brother Fred, 5.

Last Monday night at 8 p. m. Pat Russell, 213 Calle de Madrid and Olive Monsen, 228 Calle de Madrid, hosted a baby shower for the expected twins. A small evening snack in buffet style was served. All the gifts were placed in a baby bassinet obtained for the occasion and decorated in both pink and blue. The cake was decorated with a clothes line complete with tiny diapers swinging on the line. Diaper nut cups were used and little cake squares were decorated in tune with the occasion. Mrs. Monsen baked the cake and decorated the squares.

Baby shower games were played and the many guests from Riviera included Margy Greer, 142 Via Alameda; Marge Walker, 105 Paseo de Granada; Jane Webb, 217 Calle de Madrid; Nancy McIntosh, 313 Via Colusa; Ellen Engel, 335 Calle de Andaluca; Meta Ludwick, 348 Calle de Andaluca; Laura Sturgill, 340 Calle de Andaluca; Virginia Warren, 225 Calle de Madrid; Daphne Holmes, 345 Paseo de Gracia; Bertha Boyer, 208 Calle de Madrid; Mary Beth Hornbeck, 210 Calle de Madrid; Lias Stefan, 120 Calle de Andaluca; and Jean Aber, 316 Via Colusa. Helen Higginbottom, former resident of Riviera also attended.

There's nothing like a sick pitcher to put a baseball club behind the eight ball, whether the players are thirteen or thirty. Our Little League ball club dropped their second game, by a score of 3 to 2, at the Malaga Cove diamond. George Sutton, Riviera's hurler, was ill and Jimmy Coyle subbed on the pitcher's mound, turning in a splendid game despite the loss. At the picnic held after the game at El Retiro park, two bronze plaques were presented, one to the Angels' pitcher and one to the catcher, as awards from the Riviera team.

Young Riviera boys, 10 to 13, who are interested in playing ball with the Little League Riviera team should contact Mrs. Moir at FR-54598. More sponsors and supporters are also needed to help the team.

Children of the Riviera Sunday school, meeting each Sunday at El Retiro park clubhouse, should arrive a half hour early on Oct. 5, reports Superintendent Jack Satterlee. The Sunday school is joining with churches everywhere to celebrate a worldwide Communion Sunday. The Rev. R. Hylton Sanders of Redondo Methodist Church will be in attendance at the clubhouse on that Sunday. Those children who haven't regular church affiliation are invited by Mr. Satterlee to attend the brief service together with their parents and the parents of those who are regularly enrolled.

Sunday school teachers include Jim Greer, Sally Whitney, Marge Chittick, Frances Dowling, Marge Kinsey, Glenna Willett, and Jack Satterlee, all of Hollywood Riviera. Parents desiring more information on that Sunday school may call either Jack Satterlee at FR. 5-3554 or Jim Greer at FR. 5-3911.

Robert J. Coyle, 110 Calle de Andaluca, is away on a business swing through the Pacific northwest for his firm. He will be gone another two weeks seeing clients in Seattle, Portland, Boise, Spokane, and Victoria, British Columbia. Mrs. Coyle and her son and daughter keep the home fires burning.

Speaker of the afternoon at the first fall season meeting of the Women's Guild of the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes was Mrs. Barbara Mabius, 209 Via Colusa, Hollywood Riviera. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. William Larie of Palos Verdes and Barbara chose as her subject, "The Place of Music in Worship."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldwin, 139 Paseo de Granada, and daughter Bonnie, treated themselves to a visit to Knott's Berry Farm last week. The occasion was one of the highlights of his one-week vacation just terminated.

Their daughter Bonnie is a third grade pupil at Marymount School in Palos Verdes, now in its second year of education.

The Riviera PTA Safety Committee requests that parents driving their children to and from the Riviera school show great caution going up and down the road leading into the school grounds. The committee points out that this is possibly the most dangerous point in the school district, since children afoot and on bikes crowd into the same roadway creating a serious traffic hazard.

Frances Dowling, chairman of the committee, also added that the school bus route has been blocked throughout lower Riviera by automobiles parked on both sides of the bus route streets. Families living on those streets are asked by the committee to park their cars in their driveways, thus allowing the bus to pass through. Building contractors will be notified by Chief Stroth to park on only one side of the street in lower Riviera, Mrs. Dowling concluded.

"The FORGOTTEN ONES" —

They also have rights

Thousands of Douglas El Segundo employees have become the "forgotten ones" in the work stoppage engineered last week by Union bosses at that plant.

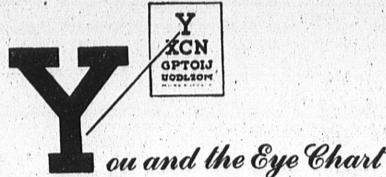

They are men and women, many of them members of the Union, who never did and do not now want to strike. They have families, support homes and children, and have financial responsibilities. They feel they have the right to work at the jobs they like and want. Through no fault of their own they have become "orphans of the picket line".

Hundreds of these fine Americans have written and telephoned the company to protest against threats and intimidations designed to keep them from their jobs. They know the airplanes built by them at El Segundo are urgently needed by the Navy in Korea right now and that every airplane lost by the strike may cost additional American lives. These employees know they will receive from the constituted authorities the protection to which they are entitled as citizens in a free country.

The company has advised its employees, and wants the public to know, that it is unlawful to threaten or intimidate anyone who wants to work. We are confident the police and the authorities will enforce the law and the court's injunction against violence and intimidation. We will vigorously insist on prosecution of anyone guilty of threats, assaults or acts of vandalism in this needless and costly strike. Surely this labor dispute can be settled reasonably and justly without the use of force or destruction.
